

RLM Outstanding Pro-life Youth Award 2010

The Award:

Right to Life of Michigan Educational Fund will award a $300 scholarship to one outstanding pro-life high school senior in Michigan. The award may be used towards tuition, books, and/or supplies.

Eligibility:

Any Michigan student who is a high school senior for the Fall, Winter or Spring semesters of the 2009/2010 school year.

Selection:

Selection criteria includes the student's application, essay and a list of his/her participation in pro-life activities. Applications and essays will be judged by each RLM affiliate, and then one student from each affiliate will be nominated to a state committee for consideration. Affiliates must send the chosen application and essay to the State Office, and it must be postmarked no later than April 23, 2010. The winner will be selected by the state committee. An excerpt of the winning essay will appear in the Right to Life of Michigan News.

Requirements:

The application and essay must be submitted to the affiliate by the student. In addition to the short application, students must also submit a 300-400 word essay about what this next generation can do to promote a positive pro-life message. 40% of the score is based on the essay, which will be judged on content, grammar and originality. 60% of the score is based on pro-life activities and involvement, which must include active help with the RLM affiliate and/or state organization and will be judged on a variety of activities, demonstrated leadership and self-motivation.
