GUEST SPEAKER

SHAUNA PREWITT, ESQ.

Shauna Prewitt is an author, attorney, advocate and public speaker. While attending the University of Chicago, the course of Shauna's life changed forever when she became a victim of sexual assault. Shauna soon thereafter learned that she was pregnant from her attack.

After deciding to continue the pregnancy and raise her child, Shauna was shocked when her attacker sought custody of her baby girl. She was even more astonished when she learned that few legal protections exist to protect the women who become mothers as a result of a rape. Spurred by these events, Shauna made a commitment to do what she could to change custody laws around the nation.

MASTER OF CEREMONIES

REV. PIERRE KONJA

Ordained as a priest in July of 2011, Rev. Pierre attended Sacred Heart Major Seminary for six years. He first served at St. George Chaldean Catholic Church from 2011-2013, and is presently the Administrator at Mother of God Cathedral in Southfield. In addition, he is the vocation director for the Eparchy of St. Thomas the Apostle and has helped organize group trips to the annual March for Life in Washington, DC since 2012.
